American Legacy Foundation Small Innovative Grants Program

Program: Established as part of a settlement agreement between forty-six state attorneys general and a group of tobacco companies, the American Legacy Foundation seeks to reduce tobacco usage in the United States. The organization has adopted two goals toward that end:

- 1) arming all young people with the knowledge and tools to reject tobacco; and
- 2) eliminating disparities in access to tobacco prevention and cessation services.

Twice a year, the foundation supports a limited number of grants under its Small Innovative Grants Program. Through this program, Legacy supports projects that advance creative, promising solutions based on sound principles of tobacco control to remedy the harm caused by tobacco use in America. The program is designed to seed new projects or enable an organization to pilot a new idea or approach. Applications must address one or both of Legacy's goals.

Funds: Grant size: up to $100,000

Deadline: Letter of intent: February 15, 2006

Eligible: State and local governments and agencies and tax exempt, not-for-profit organizations

Committee on the Arts and the Humanities

Coming Up Taller Awards

Program: The President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities, in partnership with the Institute of Museum and Library Services, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Humanities, has announced that nomination guidelines are now available for the 2006 Coming Up Taller Awards program. Each year the Coming Up Taller Awards recognize and reward outstanding after-school and out-of-school arts and humanities programs for underserved children and youth. Programs initiated by museums, libraries, performing arts organizations, universities, colleges, arts centers, community service organizations, schools, businesses, and eligible government entities are encouraged to participate. Coming Up Taller Awards are given to organizations for a specific program or programs. Nominated programs are eligible if they meet the following criteria:

- operate as a program for children and youth outside the school day, including preschool, after-school, weekend, and summer programs, however;
- have been operational since January 2002 for a minimum of five years, including 2006;
- use one or more disciplines of the humanities or the arts as the core content of its program;
- concentrate on children and youth who live in family and community circumstances that limit their opportunities;
- involve children and youth as active participants in the arts or humanities experience;
- provide participants with regularly scheduled sessions on an ongoing basis; and
- integrate arts or humanities education programs with youth development goals, such as enhanced leadership skills, self-confidence, and peer relations.

All programs must be nominated, although self-nominations are accepted.
